Part of the experience here at Tall Trees Glamping is to indulge in the treats we have on offer and to give the usual chef in the group a well earned rest. We stock affordable, handmade delicious meals and all you need to do is pop them in the oven. We have two portion sizes, for two or six people. Cooking instructions and ingredients can be found on the packaging. If you have any special requests for dinner, maybe something you and a loved one haven't had in ages or a family favourite, let us know and we will do our best to arrange it for you. If you'd like to one of our dishes waiting for you in your lodge for your arrival then please let us know. We require 24 hours notice. Please ensure you check the labeling on your meal before eating to check allergens.
